Special considerations for applicants with disabilities (including illnesses or injuries due to an accident)

- Based on the "Application for Consideration for Examination," the necessary adjustments will be made including seat assignment, usage of assistive devices, change the method of the English listening comprehension test, or place a nurse during the academic achievement test or interview.

Selection process for students who have been absent from school for long periods, etc. (including past year's graduates)

- This selection process is available to students who have been absent from school for long periods due to unavoidable circumstances. It is offered at all schools and courses of full-time courses, part-time courses, and correspondence courses.

※If you wish to request this consideration

Consult carefully with your junior high school teacher.

Register in the online application system during the application period.

Recommendation selection for “Those who are exceptional individual, overcoming underprivileged circumstances, highly motivated, and set as a good example for living lifestyle.”

- The process of selection by recommendation for full-time courses at Aichi prefectural senior high schools include the criteria “Those who are outstanding in character, overcoming underprivileged circumstances, highly motivated, and a good example for others in their attitude toward life.” Meaning of “underprivileged circumstances” in this selection process, are defined as followings. The applicant’s parent or guardian meeting any of the conditions (1) to (3) in the following table, or the applicants themselves fall under condition (4). The documents proving those reasons are listed in the “Supporting Documentation” column below.
- This recommendation selection is based on a request from guardians or the student. The junior high school principal recommends a student after screening the student in junior high school. Those who wish to apply should notify their homeroom teachers and submit the "Supporting Documentation " shown in the table below within the specified period by the junior high school. Approved applications should upload the data image of the documents submitted to the junior high school through Web application system during the application period.

Circumstances	Supporting Documentation
